Research Paper Guidelines for CADS 2024

The following guidelines should be followed for the presentation of research papers at the conference:

Guidelines for the presentation of research papers:

- All research papers must be delivered in person.
- All panels will be moderated by an expert in the field – see the academic programme.
- Panel presentations will consist of an 18-20-minute talk, followed by 8-10 minutes for questions and discussion.
- The presentation file must be brought by the presenter on a USB stick and should be handed to the moderator before the start of the panel.
- To avoid technical problems, the presentation should be in either PowerPoint or PDF format.
- It is not possible to stream or record presentations for an online audience.

Formatting recommendations:

- It is advised that only one or two fonts be used.
- Suggested font size ranges for different sections of the presentation:
  - presentation title(s): 48–80 pts
  - headings: 36–40 pts
  - body text: 18–24 pts
  - figure captions: 14–18 pts

Including all relevant information:

In addition to the title, author(s) and affiliated institutions, the CADS 2024 logo should be included on all presentations.
