

Workshop of the Euregio Science Fund Research Project Resilient Beliefs: Religion and Beyond

Growth Imperative? A Case Study of Resilient Beliefs in Economics

Friday, 24 January 2025, 14.00 – 17.00, Dekanatssitzungssaal / Theol. Fakultät, Karl-Rahner-Platz 1

- 14.00 Welcome address (Katherine Dormandy)
- 14.10 The Epistemology of Resilient Beliefs:
A Primer for Non-Philosophers (Winfried Löffler)
- 14.35 Growth Imperative: A Primer for Non-Economists
(Markus Walzl)
- 15.00 Challenging Growth Imperative: A Reflection on a Plurality of Approaches (Andreas Exenberger)
- 15.25 Coffee Break
- 15.45 Discussion

Guests welcome!

Speakers: Katherine Dormandy is Full Professor at the Department of Christian Philosophy, and head of the Innsbruck Center for Philosophy of Religion (ICPR). – Andreas Exenberger is Associated Professor at the Department of Economic Theory, Policy and History, and member of EPOS. – Winfried Löffler is Associated Professor at the Department of Christian Philosophy and member of the ICPR. – Markus Walzl is Full Professor at the Department of Economic Theory, Policy and History, Dean of the Faculty of Economics and Statistics, and member of Innsbruck Decision Science (IDS). --- Info: <https://resilientbeliefs.fbk.eu> <https://uibk.ac.at/epos/>