(Meta-)Data Orchestration: Connecting Manuscript Collections for Innovating Research — 'Berlinka' in Action

Jagiellonian University, Kraków, Poland, 21–22 November 2024

21 November (Thursday)
Jagiellonian Library, entrance on Oleandry Street, Conference Hall

9.00–9.30 Conference opening

Session one: Ready for (Meta-) Data Orchestation? Experiences and New Ideas

9.30–10.00 Wittgenstein in LLM: First Experiences from a Pilot, and Further Thoughts
Alois Pichler (Wittgenstein Archives, University of Bergen)

10.00–10.30 Back and Forth? — Notes on the Data Exchange between Digital Editions and Libraries Using the Example of Alexander von Humbolt's Travel Notes from England
Dominik Erdmann (Berlin)

10.30–11.00 Fauntain, Lake, Orchestra. On the Prefiguration of Technical Data Concepts in Naturecultures
Simona Noreik, Jörg Paulus (Bauhaus-Universität Weimar)

11.00–11.30 Coffee break

Session two: When Manuscripts Become Data — Artificial Intelligence in Use

11.30–12.00 AI Tools for Transcription Processes and Education
Markus Ender, Ulrich Lobis, Joseph Wang-Kathrein (Brenner-Archiv, University of Innsbruck)

12.00–12.30 AI and Metadata: Lessons Learned from the AHRC "Our Heritage, Our Stories". Towards a National Collection Research Project
Lorna Hughes (University of Glasgow)

12.30–13.00 Manuscriptorium and AI: Enriching Digitised Content on an Automated Basis
Michael Lužný (Manuscriptorium, National Library of Czech Republic)

13.00–14.30 Lunch break

14.30–15.30 Panel discussion one: Applications of Artificial Intelligence in Digital Manuscript Collections: Opportunities, Benefits, and Threats
Chair: Remigiusz Sapa (Jagiellonian Library, Kraków)
Lorna Hughes (University of Glasgow), Alois Pichler (Wittgenstein Archives, University of Bergen), Michael Lužný (Manuscriptorium, National Library of the Czech Republic), Joseph Wang-Kathrein (Brenner-Archiv, University of Innsbruck)

15.30–16.00 Coffee break

Session three: Platforms, Tools, and Projects for Orchestrating Digital Manuscripts and Their Metadata (No. 1)

16.00–16.30 Kalliope: From Union Catalogue to Data Science Services for the Humanities
Gerhard Müller (Staatsbibliothek zu Berlin)

16.30–17.00 The Handschriftenportal (Manuscripts Portal) – Use-Cases, Concepts, Lessons Learned
Robert Giel (Staatsbibliothek zu Berlin)

17.00–17.30 ECHOES Project and the European Collaborative Cloud for Cultural Heritage
Aleksandra Nowak (Poznan Supercomputing and Networking Center)

Session four: Platforms, Tools, and Projects for Orchestrating Digital Manuscripts and Their Metadata (No. 2)

9.00–9.30	An Overview of IIIF: What Is It and What Can You Do with It? Rebecca Hirsch (University of Edinburgh Libraries)
9.30–10.00	Polona Data Model: Present and Future Use Cases Sonia Wronkowska (National Library in Warsaw)
10.00–10.30	Enhancing Researcher Access to Manuscript Collections through Redescription and Multifaceted Tools at the Library of Congress Lara Szypszak (Library of Congress)
10.30–11.00	The Use of Artificial Intelligence in the Digitisation of Historical Texts (Schwabacher): Transkribus in Editorial Work Olga Zatońska, Agata Lech, Joanna Hałaczkiewicz (Jagiellonian University, Kraków)

11.00–11.30	Coffee break

Presentations

11.30–12.00	Light on Manuscripts! Modern Tools for the Research and Documentation of Written Heritage Tomasz Łojewski (AGH University of Krakow), Anna Seweryn (National Archives in Krakow)
12.00–12.30	DiHeLib – Where We Are, What We Are Doing, and What We Are Planning Jadwiga Kita-Huber, Jadwiga Miszalska, Remigiusz Sapa (Jagiellonian University, Kraków)
12.30–13.15	Panel discussion two: Integrating Metadata, Scans, and Texts Generated from the Berlin Autograph Collection with the Digital Environment for Researchers in the Humanities Chair: Remigiusz Sapa (Jagiellonian Library, Kraków) Carolin Schreiber (Bavarian State Library Munich), Rebecca Hirsch (University of Edinburgh Libraries), Sonia Wronkowska (National Library in Warsaw), Lara Szypszak (Library of Congress), Rafał Wójcik (Universiy Library in Poznań)
13.15–13.20	Conference closing

Further information and registration:
https://dihelib.id.uj.edu.pl/en_GB

Organisers:
Faculty of Philology JU
Jagiellonian Library in Kraków

UNIWERSYTET JAGIELLOŃSKI W KRAKOWIE

BIBLIOTEKA JAGIELLOŃSKA

UCZELNIA BADAWCZA INICJATYWA DOSKONAŁOŚCI